

Laura Magone

For the past nine years, Laura Magone has been a self-employed organizational development consultant, which has allowed her to work with a multitude of clients ranging from non-profits to entrepreneurial ventures to Fortune 100 and 500 corporations. She has assisted companies in the areas of customer service, team building, direct marketing, management and leadership development and marketing strategy development. Laura is affiliated with a variety of organizations including the American Marketing Association and the American Society for Training and Development.

Kenneth Schultz

Ken Schultz, president, Shannon Construction Company, began his career at the company in 1976 where he worked as a union laborer, union carpenter, estimator and project manager before moving to Houston for jobs at Bechtel Inc. and C.E. Crest. Schultz returned to Pittsburgh and Shannon as vice president before taking the helm where he is acting senior project manager on larger projects, the chief technology officer for conceptual estimating, and operations manager.

Page 8

